

The main task of the association...

...is the caring and the support of women in Stolberg (with or without immigrant background) who have difficulties to frame their daily routine beyond their family and their household, because of problems regarding the language or social problems. We help them to develop individual initiative for a healthy, sociable and diversified living.