

The aim of the association...

...is to enable women and girls to shape their living- and social environment regarding to their desires in order to accomplish a balance to their private burden and to give those gained forces back to their family and to improve the quality of living for everyone.

The association is political, ethnical and confessional neutral.